

SCARLET COUNTRY BULLETIN

Friday, October 14, 2016

“A” Day

Make-up Day for School Pictures will be November 1st – 8:45 – 11:45 AM (Concession Area).

Girls swimming had a great week with a big win in Ottumwa Tuesday and a fantastic night last night at the SEPolk Invite. Anna Liu and Morgan Palmer were runner's up in the backstroke relay. Champions at Ottumwa included Lui, Palmer, MaryKate Walling, Emma Buchacker, and Jenny Ortiz. There were big swims by Lynette Smith, Christine Erb, Hailey Gathercole, Erika Coll and Mackenzie Prewitt to add to the win!

Girls basketball tryouts on Monday Nov 7, 2016 from 3:15-4:45 p.m.

Seniors: The Lois Dale Scholarship application is now available in the Counseling Office. This is a full-ride scholarship opportunity made possible by the Bright Foundation. Completed applications will be due December 15th. See your counselor if you have questions.

Students who have received their packet and payment for the PSAT must pay the $20 by Tuesday, Oct. 18th by 2:30pm in the Bookkeeping Office!

Juniors and Seniors in who are interested in learning about career programs at DMACC Urban, there will be a college visit on Friday, November 11. If you are interested, please see Ms. Rossow in the Counseling Office to register. Hurry, only the first 50 who sign up can attend!

The IHSSA team is a competitive speech and drama team. We start the year with large group categories like television news, short film, choral reading, improvisation, and one-act play. If you are interested in more information, stop in and see Mrs. Johnson in 2074M. If you are know you would like to try out for one of the performing groups, come to the IHSSA workshop Friday, October 21st at 3:00, Room 2074M.