

SCARLET COUNTRY BULLETIN

Tuesday, November 15, 2016

“B” Day

Seniors: FAFSA Help Night is tomorrow, November 16th, from 1-8 PM in the library! Please come to the counseling office if you have questions! Appointment reminder slips are going out today and tomorrow. If you did not make an appointment, but would like to file your FAFSA tomorrow, please come see Mrs. Brandt-Erickson in the counseling office.

Students, get your Golden Tickets turned in at the Scarlet Market today for a chance to win our prize drawing on Wednesday.

REMINDER: The Combat Hunger food drive collections will take place this Wednesday in Advisory.

Non-Fiction readers should enjoy the book The Great Fire by Jim Murphy. The book is about the Great Chicago Fire. This is excellent social history as well as suspenseful storytelling. The book is made up of a number of personal accounts, and is well illustrated. This is the best type of non-fiction. Well researched, and interesting to read.

The weight room will be closed this week on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday after school.

Senior's if you have received your Panoramic Picture from Lifetouch and it's for a different school, please see Ms. Harper-Gill in the main office.

Senior's please submit your photos for the yearbook by this Friday 11/18. Students that do not submit a senior yearbook photo by this Friday, will use their school photo from this year.

The Ambassadors are teaming up with Central Iowa Shelter Services this month and we are looking for old but clean t-shirts that we can use for a project. Please let me know if you have t-shirts or feel free to bring them to 3060N anytime.

Yearbooks are now for sale with the bookkeeper for $60. There will be NO extra yearbooks ordered so you must pre-order a book if you want one. Don't miss out!