

SCARLET COUNTRY BULLETIN

Tuesday, November 8, 2016

"A" Day

Students...at the Scarlet Market you can use your Be East Cards to purchase a student ticket to the EHS Musical Hairspray. 12 Be East cards will get you one student ticket. Hurry while the Scarlet Market's supply of tickets lasts.

Students participating in ACE Mentoring program are reminded of the 3:30 meeting today at SE Polk HS. If you are in need of ride, come to the East Engineering room (1109E) immediately afterschool.

4-H will meet after school in room 1046. We will discuss membership. So if you want to join, tonight is the night to come.

STUDENTS another change: We have changed our yearbook a little this year due to budget issues. We will be ordering NO extra yearbooks for students who don't pre-order this year-non. NADA! But, we don't need to know the amount we are ordering until the Friday before Spring Break.

All students and staff are invited to come and vote in the mock presidential election TODAY. The polling place is in the library. We will compare our results with how the country votes on Wednesday.

All wrestlers, practice starts next Monday. If you have not seen Giboo for an order form for gear or have not signed up, please do so ASAP.

REMINDER - Jostens Leadership Conference - Tuesday, November 29th - REGISTRATION DEADLINE - FRIDAY, NOV. 18th

Do you have what it takes to be a National Student Poet? Do you write poetry? If you are in grades 10 or 11 you are eligible to apply. The deadline is approaching. Please see Ms. Keenan in the library for details.

Movement 515 will be having break dancing sessions every Thursday in November, December, January, and February. If you are interested, see Ms. Williamson, Ms. O'Connor, or a Movement 515 poet.

Wednesday, November 9 is National Guard Night from 6-7:30 in the cafeteria. Join us to learn more about the Iowa National Guard. Parents are welcome and pizza will be served. All students are eligible to attend! If you have any questions or would like to sign up, please go to the Counseling Office.
