"A" Day

Hey 9th and 10th graders! Before you know it, you will be an 11th grader too! It is not too soon to get your meningitis shot. Go ahead, be an over achiever, a go-getter, a health nut. Next year, when everyone else has to get their shot, you can inwardly laugh, knowing that you already have had yours. Remember, the first 10 students to bring their documentation to the nurses get genuine, real sized, delicious, cavity giving candy!!

Congratulations to Gabe Ewert for being recognized as an outstanding soloist at the Jim Coffin Jazz Festival. East High School Jazz band came in third place among 4A schools.

NHS will not meet today. The next meeting will be on March 22nd. This a change!!

During Spring Break, as you are deep cleaning your room and house, make sure to save all your pennies for the "Pennies for Patients" fundraiser sponsored by NHS. More information to follow after spring break on this fundraiser and the dodgeball tournament to be held on April 14th!

The Be East team will be offering incentives for students who attend conferences. When arriving at conferences, be sure to check-in at the Be East table and enter our prize drawing.

ELL students that have Ms. Henniges-Shaw, Ms. Riley, Mr. Ketchum, Ms. Garcia, Ms. Gildharry, Ms. Bullock, or Mr. Hawkins will be taking the ELPA21 assessment for English all day tomorrow. Students, check your room assignments at the school entrances OR on the 4th floor as they are posted at each location. All other ELL students will assess next Wednesday, March 8th. Students that have these teachers for Scarlet Block are to meet in the cafeteria during that time.
